

CHEVY

Bichon/Shih Tzu

DOB: 2003

Ruppy Love client since 2005

Hi my name is Chevy, I'm 10 years old here is a little bit of information about myself. I joined my family as an eight week old puppy. My mommy fell in love with me at first sight. I have big sappy brown eyes & also a big boned figure weighting in at 30lbs. I have a big belly with an appetite that is always ready to eat. I can be described as a loyal companion as I'm always near my mommy and I don't let anyone near her (She is only mine)! I'm always on guard protecting my house and the whole entire street that I think I own. There's nothing that gets near my house not even those nasty tumble weeds. I make sure that everyone knows where I live by my loud and deep barking. I'm usually described as a typical grumpy old man, because I love having naps & being left alone. I'm not much for being man handled as I am getting to me golden years. My human siblings might say that I'm more spoiled but I don't see me getting a steak... I enjoy walking, camping & laying around with my family! My best friend is Peanut who I like to steal her food from time to time, but she is still pretty cool!

Thank you to Kimberly for grooming a grumpy old man!

Peanut

Bichon/Shih Tzu

Hi my name is Peanut, I'm 10 years old here is a little bit of information about myself. I joined my family when I was only to be cared for a few months in the summer, but it has been five years that they have loved me and counting. I have big brown eyes that always makes my family melt, also I'm a little plump but not fat!!! I'm occasionally hungry because my best friend and his cat buddy steal my food. I can be described as a hopeless romantic, since I'm always looking for a cuddle buddy and a source for kisses. I can be self-centered (in a good way) I tend to bark just to hear my beautiful voice... Sometimes my shadow sneaks up on me and I give her a barking as well. I'm a little ditsy, I like to lick the garbage lid, dishwasher and couch my favorite is dark brown cushions. I'm a foxy old lady as told by other dogs and my family. I'm a sun babe, the summer is defiantly my favorite season. I also enjoy camping and getting heat from under the blankets, my human family say for a little dog I'm a big bed hog! I never go without my little green toy tennis ball that fits perfectly in my mouth, but sometimes I like to take on a challenge with a full size tennis ball. My best friend is named Chevy, sometimes I'll show him who is boss but he is always fun to play with and makes a good pillow!

Thank you to Kimberly for making me pretty!
