Tessa's Bio

I decided to showcase one of my puppy's this month as she has just passed her 12th birthday. Tessa was a tiny black puppy that could fit into my hand when I picked her up so we nicknamed her 'mouse'. She was such a good girl & didn't even let out a peep the first night. I thought that I truly picked the right name for her (as I named her after Tess after the lady on 'Touched by an Angel'). But I was soon to discover the little terrier that was inside of her. I had her in training at 8 weeks of age as that terrier defiance & poodle intelligence was difficult to handle. Although the training curbed a bit of that behavior, till this day, she is still a little 'beast' as the trainer called her. Tessa is also very loving & if she chooses will hug you endlessly & will also french kiss with you. I love her dearly & hope that she has many more years with me to fetch her favorite ball, stare at me when it's time to wake up, liven up my camping adventures & give me her sweet Puppy Love daily.
